ERG and Plenitude sign agreement for the supply of a total of 320 GWh of wind energy in Italy

Genoa, 20 January 2025 – ERG, a leading independent producer of energy from renewable sources, and Plenitude, a subsidiary of Eni that integrates the production from renewables, the sale of energy and energy solutions and a network of charging points for electric vehicles, have signed a 5-year "pay as produced" Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) for the supply of approximately 64 GWh/year of energy produced by ERG's wind farms in Italy which operate without tariff-based incentives.

Paolo Merli, CEO of ERG, has commented: "Thanks to this important agreement with Plenitude, a leader in the energy market in our Country, we keep developing our revenue stabilization plan also with reference to plants, as in this case, that have completed the incentive period".
