ERG wins Financial Statements Oscar in "Medium and small listed companies" category

Group receives award for second consecutive year

Genoa, 26 November 2022 – ERG has won the 2022 Financial Statements Oscar in the "Medium and small listed companies" category. The award, sponsored by FERPI (The Italian Federation of Public Relations), Borsa Italiana and Bocconi University is now in its 58th edition. It goes to companies whose financial statements not only report their operations, but also show their willingness to share results and goals with their stakeholders through timely and transparent communication.

Based on the analysis of the Group's complete set of reports, the award recognises ERG's clear and well-structured financial statements and its efficient use of images that help the reader understand the goals it sets out to achieve. The general aspects of the financial reporting and the degree of detail in the presentation of the company's identity in the financial statements, such as the mission, vision, values and history of the Group, were also judged positively.

The award given to ERG, following those received in 2021 and 2016, confirms the effectiveness of the reporting model adopted in recent years for both the Annual Financial Report and the Non-Financial Statement.
