Administration

Article 15

1. The Company is managed by a Board of Directors comprising, in observance of the gender-balance criterion set forth by current legislative and regulatory provisions, no less than 5 and no more than 15 members.
2. The Shareholders' Meeting shall establish the number of Board members, within the aforesaid limits and until determined otherwise by way of a new resolution.
3. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected on the basis of lists presented by Shareholders, on which the candidates must be listed with a sequential number. The lists presented by Shareholders, accompanied by the personal and professional characteristics of candidates, must be lodged at the Company's registered office – it being possible to use for such purpose whatever form of remote communication may be indicated in the notice of convocation of the Shareholders' Meeting called to elect the Board of Directors – within the term laid down by current legislative and regulatory provisions.

The lists may only be presented by Shareholders who, either individually or with other Shareholders, represent the percentage of share capital established in accordance with the CONSOB Regulation prevailing as at the date of convocation of the Shareholders' Meeting, to be specified in the convocation notice for the Shareholders' Meeting convened to elect the Board of Directors.

In order to demonstrate possession of the number of shares required for presentation of the lists, Shareholders must submit and/or deliver to the Company's registered office a copy of the certificates issued by their respective intermediaries – it being possible to use for such purpose whatever form of remote communication may be indicated in the notice of convocation of the Shareholders' Meeting called to elect the Board of Directors – in accordance with and within the term laid down by current legislative and regulatory provisions.

Each Shareholder may present or participate in the presentation of only one list and each candidate may be included in only one list, under penalty of ineligibility.

Each list must contain a number of candidates not to exceed the maximum number of Directors specified in the first paragraph of this article and, with the exception of those lists including less than three candidates, must comply with the gender-balance criterion set forth by current legislative and regulatory provisions.

The lists shall indicate which Directors satisfy the independence requirements laid down by article 147-ter, paragraph 4, of the Consolidated Law on Finance. At least one candidate per list, or two candidates in the case of a Board with more than seven members, must have the aforesaid independence requirements.

All candidates must possess the requisites of honourableness laid down for the members of Control Bodies by current legislation, as well as the requisites of professionalism required for the position in question.

Together with each list, within the term indicated above, individual candidates must lodge a declaration accepting the candidature and declaring, under their own responsibility, the non-existence of motives for ineligibility or incompatibility, as well as the possession of requisites as required under applicable legislation, and providing information, where appropriate, describing their independence.

For the purpose of allocating the Directors to be elected, consideration shall not be given to the lists that have failed to reach a number of votes such as to represent a percentage of shareholding equal to at least half of that required for their presentation.

4. All parties entitled to vote may do so for only one list.
The Directors shall be elected as follows:
 - a) from the list that obtains the majority of votes expressed shall be drawn, based on their sequential order of listing, a number of Directors corresponding to the number of members to be elected less one, subject to the provisions set forth in paragraph 5 concerning the appointment of independent Directors and in paragraph 5-bis as regards compliance with the principle of gender balance in the composition of the Board of Directors;
 - b) the remaining Director shall be drawn from the minority list that obtains the highest number of votes;
 - c) in case of presentation of only one list, or in case the other lists fail to reach the required quorum, the Directors shall be elected based on the list presented or having reached the quorum up to the number of candidates presented therein, subject to the provision set forth in paragraph 5-bis as regards compliance with the principle of gender balance in the composition of the Board of Directors.
 5. In any case, the candidate or, where the Board has more than seven members, the first two candidates belonging to the list obtaining the highest number of votes, according to their order of appearance on the list in question, who satisfy the independence requirements, shall be considered elected.
Independent Directors who, following their appointment, cease to have the independence requirements as set forth by article 147-ter, paragraph 4, of the Consolidated Law on Finance, must immediately notify the Board of Directors and shall, in any case, forfeit their office.
- 5-bis.* In the event that the number of candidates belonging to the least represented gender drawn – as appropriate – from the two lists pursuant to paragraph 4 letters a) and b) above or from the only list pursuant to paragraph 4 letter c) above is less than the number required under current legislative and regulatory provisions, the candidate drawn for appointment purposes from the list as per paragraph 4 letter a) above or from the only list as referred to in paragraph 4 letter c) above who, of those belonging to the most represented gender has the highest sequential number, shall from time to time – as appropriate – be replaced with the candidate belonging to the least represented gender with the lowest sequential number, included in the same list and not previously drawn for appointment purposes.
This replacement procedure may be repeated, as necessary, in reference to several candidates. Wherever it is not possible to draw the required number of candidates belonging to the least represented gender, the missing candidates shall be appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting by way of majority vote in such a way

- as to in any case ensure that the composition of the Board of Directors conforms to both current legislative and regulatory requirements and the articles of association.
6. The Directors shall remain in office for a period of three financial years and their term shall expire as of the date of the Shareholders' Meeting convened to approve the financial statements pertaining to the last year of their office.

Directors may be re-elected.

In case one or more Directors should vacate their office, steps shall be taken as provided by law. However, in the event that, for whatsoever reason, prior to expiry of their mandate, the majority of Directors appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting should vacate their office, the entire Board shall be dissolved and the Shareholders' Meeting must be urgently convened by the Directors still in office for the reconstitution thereof. The Board shall nevertheless remain in office in order to perform only duties of ordinary administration pending the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting regarding its renewal and pending acceptance on the part of the majority of the new Directors.

Article 16

The Board of Directors shall have full powers, without any exception, for the ordinary and extraordinary management of the Company and shall be authorised to perform any actions it may consider appropriate in order to implement and accomplish Company targets, excluding only those actions which by law are strictly reserved for the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 17

Where the Shareholders' Meeting has not already done so, the Board of Directors shall appoint a Chairman from among its members, and may appoint one or more Deputy Chairmen and one or more Managing Directors, fixing their powers and functions.

The Board may set up Committees as deemed appropriate in order to enhance managerial efficiency and improve the information flow vis-à-vis third parties and the market in general.

Decisions concerning the following are reserved for the competence of the Board of Directors:

- mergers, in the cases set forth by articles 2505 and 2505-bis as well as in the cases referred to in article 2506-ter last paragraph of the Italian Civil Code;
- indication as to which Directors are authorised to represent the Company;
- reduction of share capital in case of shareholder's withdrawal;
- statutory adaptations to supervening mandatory legislative provisions;
- transfer of the Company's registered office within Italy.

The Board of Directors may appoint an Honorary Chairman even from outside its own members, if the same has not already been appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting.

If the Honorary Chairman is not a member of the Board of Directors, he shall have no voting rights and his presence shall not count towards the validity of the Board Meetings.

The Board of Directors may also appoint one or more General Managers even from outside its own members, fixing the powers and functions of same.

The Board of Directors may appoint a Secretary even from outside its own members.

Article 18

The Board of Directors may appoint managers, agents and attorneys-in-fact, delegating them, either jointly or separately, to perform specific actions or categories of action in the name of and on behalf of the Company.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors, as well as the Managing Director or Managing Directors, may appoint attorneys for individual matters and/or categories of related matters, establishing from time to time the powers and functions of the same.

Article 19

The Board of Directors shall report to the Board of Statutory Auditors on a quarterly basis, through the Managing Director where necessary, with regard to the activities performed and the transactions of major economic or financial importance or impact on the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries.

At the option of the Board Members or, in accordance with the foregoing, the Managing Director, the report shall be delivered either during the board meetings or by way of a specific written memorandum.

The Board Members shall also report on transactions in which they hold an interest, whether for their own account or on behalf of third parties.

The Board shall be convened with prior notice of at least five clear days. In cases of absolute urgency, two clear days' prior notice shall be sufficient.

The Board of Directors may meet even outside the registered office in Italy or abroad. The Board meetings may also be held via teleconference or videoconference provided that all participants can be identified and are able to follow the debate and intervene in real time in the business being discussed. Provided that such conditions exist, the Board meeting is considered held in the place where the Chairman is, together with the meeting Secretary, for the purpose of drafting the relative minutes.

The meeting shall be called by the Chairman or in his place by one of the Deputy Chairmen, in order of seniority, or in their place by one of the Managing Directors, again in order of seniority, by letter, fax or telegram or via email setting out the agenda.

In the absence of such formalities, the resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be valid if all non-resigning Board Members and the Standing Auditors are present.

The Board shall be chaired by the Chairman or in his place by one of the Deputy Chairman or in the place of the latter by one of the Managing Directors, in the same order previously indicated for the convocation.

In order for the meeting to be considered valid, the presence of the majority of the members in office is required.

The Board shall pass resolutions based on an absolute majority of attendees; in case of parity the chair shall have the casting vote.

Article 20

The minutes of the meeting proceedings shall be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary.

Article 21

Each list shall comprise two sections: one for the candidates for the position of Standing Auditor and the other for the candidates for the position of Alternate Auditor. Each list must contain a number of candidates, listed in sequential order, not to exceed the maximum number of Auditors to be elected and the list for each section, with the exception of those lists including less than three candidates, must comply with the gender-balance criterion set forth by current legislative and regulatory provisions.
3. Lists may only be presented by Shareholders who, at the time of presenting the list, are in possession of a shareholding equal to that required for the presentation of lists for election of the Directors pursuant to Article 15 of the Articles of Association, or such other shareholding as set forth by current legislative and regulatory provisions.
4. No shareholder may present or vote for more than one list, even through an intermediary or nominee. Shareholders belonging to the same group, within the meaning set forth by applicable regulatory provisions, and Shareholders participating in a shareholder agreement concerning shares of the Company may not present or vote for more than one list, even through an intermediary or nominee. Each candidate may be included in only one list, under penalty of ineligibility.
5. Candidates who fail to meet the requisites of independence, professionalism and honourableness set forth by article 148, paragraph 3, of the Consolidated Law on Finance and those who hold the position of member of the control body in five other listed companies, subject in any case to the limitations placed on the plurality of administration and control positions laid down by applicable legislative and regulatory provisions, cannot be appointed as Auditors.
6. Outgoing Auditors can be re-elected.
7. The lists must be lodged at the Company's registered office – it being possible to use for such purpose whatever form of remote communication may be indicated in the notice of convocation of the Shareholders' Meeting called to elect the Board of Statutory Auditors – within the term laid down by current legislative and regulatory provisions. They shall be accompanied by information pertaining to the presenting Shareholders, and the declarations of same, as set forth by applicable regulatory provisions. The lists must also be accompanied by full information concerning the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates, the declarations whereby individual candidates accept their candidature and certify, under their own responsibility, the non-existence of motives for ineligibility, incompatibility or forfeiture, the administration and control positions held with other companies, as well as their possession of the requisites required by law.

8. In the event that, by the last date for presentation of the aforementioned lists, only one list, or only lists presented by interrelated Shareholders, within the meaning set forth by applicable legislation, have been lodged, lists may be presented up until the extended deadline provided by current legislative and regulatory provisions, subject to the indications contained in the previous paragraph and applicable legislation with regard to lodging and disclosure. In such case, the thresholds referred to in paragraph 3 for the presentation of lists shall be reduced by half.
9. Any list presented that fails to comply with the above requirements shall be deemed not to have been presented at all.
10. In the event that, despite the procedure as per paragraph 8 having been duly carried out, no list is presented, the Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint members by way of majority vote in such a way as to in any case ensure that the composition of the Board of Directors conforms to both current legislative and regulatory requirements and the articles of association. The Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint the Chairman.
11. If no second list is presented or voted, the entire Board of Auditors shall be made up of the candidates from the only list voted in order of appearance. The person heading the list shall be elected Chairman.
12. In cases where more than one list is presented, the following shall be elected: two standing and two alternate members shall be drawn from the list that has obtained the largest number of votes, based on their sequential order of listing; the third standing and the third alternate member shall be elected by selecting the candidates for the respective positions heading the list that has obtained the highest number of votes after the first, of those presented and voted for by minority Shareholders who are not even indirectly related to the Shareholders who presented or voted for the first list in terms of number of votes, in accordance with prevailing regulatory provisions and subject to the requirements set forth in paragraph 13-bis regarding compliance with the principle of gender balance in the composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors. The standing member drawn from the minority list shall be appointed Chairman.
13. In the case of a parity between the lists, the candidate drawn from the list presented by Shareholders in possession of the largest quota of participation or, subordinately, the highest number of Shareholders, shall be elected.

Wherever it is not possible to draw the required number of candidates belonging to the least represented gender, the missing candidates shall be appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting by way of majority vote in such a way as to in any case

 16. The Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint the standing and/or Alternate Auditors required to reconstitute the Board in the following manner:
 - a) if the Board is to be reconstituted due to the replacement of Auditors belonging to both the majority and the minority lists, voting shall take place by way of the same list-voting procedures as provided for the appointment of the Board;

 - c) if the Board is to be reconstituted due to the replacement of an Auditor or Auditors elected on the minority list, voting shall take place in the same manner as provided for the appointment of the Board, but the majority Shareholders are unable to present their own list.
 17. In cases where it is not possible to reconstitute the Board by following the procedure set forth in paragraph 16 above, the Shareholders' Meeting may replace the Statutory Auditors who have vacated their office for whatsoever reason by selecting the new members from the persons belonging to the same list as the retiring Auditors, according to the sequential order, having first verified that same are still eligible and willing to accept the position, without prejudice to the possibility, insofar as concerns the replacement of the minority Auditor and in the absence of candidates as identified above, to appoint as replacement the first candidate on the minority list that came second in terms of number of votes, subject to observance of the gender-balance criterion set forth by current legislative and regulatory provisions.
 18. If the Shareholders' Meeting is called upon to fill a vacancy on the Board of Auditors and no list of candidates has been promptly and ritually presented, and it is not possible to carry out the replacement as per the preceding paragraph, proposals shall be presented by one or more Shareholders to the Shareholders' Meeting and the latter shall resolve according to the majorities provided by law and in observance of applicable legislation.
